

Ubon Ratchathani University Announcement No Gift Policy for the Fiscal Year 2027

Ubon Ratchathani University recognizes that preventing all forms of corruption is a fundamental responsibility of the organization. The University not only promotes education and research but also serves as a role model for good governance and transparency. Refusing gifts and gratuities in the performance of duties is therefore an important practice that reflects transparency, impartiality, and accountability to society.

Ubon Ratchathani University is firmly committed to combating corruption and misconduct in all forms. In accordance with the principles of good governance, all executives and personnel of the University shall perform their duties with integrity and shall not accept gifts or gratuities of any kind before, during, or after the performance of duties. This is to avoid any condition or action that may influence the exercise of discretion or lead to improper conduct.

All executives and administrators at every level shall act as role models, supervise, and encourage personnel under their responsibility to strictly comply with this policy, so that Ubon Ratchathani University remains an organization free from corruption and worthy of the trust of society and all stakeholders.

Since October 1, 2026 onward.

Issued on September 29, 2026

Associate Professor Chutinun Prasitpuriprecha
President of Ubon Ratchathani University