

Ubon Ratchathani University Announcement
No Gift Policy for the Fiscal Year 2025

Ubon Ratchathani University is aware of its duty to prevent all forms of corruption and promote good governance within the university to ensure fair practices across various functions and foster a sense of responsibility among the staff of higher education institutions. This responsibility encompasses being accountable, transparent, impartial, verifiable, and trustworthy to all involved parties.

Therefore, to express a strong intention to combat corruption in all forms and to enhance ethics and integrity in operations, which lead to transparency in the activities of the personnel according to good governance principles, it is hereby declared that all executives and staff of Ubon Ratchathani University will not accept any gifts or gratuities while on duty, before taking office, and after completing their duties. This is to avoid actions that could influence decision-making or lead to corruption and misconduct now and in the future.

All executives and administrators at all levels must act as role models and strictly oversee their personnel to ensure proper conduct.

Since October 1, 2024 onward.

Issued on September 27, 2024

A handwritten signature in blue ink, reading "Chutinun Prasitpuriprecha". The signature is fluid and cursive, with the first name "Chutinun" and last name "Prasitpuriprecha" clearly distinguishable.

Associate Professor Chutinun Prasitpuriprecha
President of Ubon Ratchathani University